

INTRODUCTION

The US-China Review (USCR) is the official publication of the US-China Peoples Friendship Association. Its predecessor, New China, was created by USCPFA-New York in 1973 and sold by subscription. When New China discontinued publication in 1979, the USCR was already in existence as a broadside newsletter. After New China's demise, it was upgraded to magazine form.

This index covers the years from 1981 through 2012, Volumes V-XXXVI. It does not include letters to the editor, Newsbriefs or the section's successor China Currents, Travel Notes or resource listings. Exceptions have been made for longer Travel Notes pieces. Over the years under different editors, formatting for titles of articles (use of capital letters and punctuation, for example) has changed. The index reflects these changes except in cases where additional punctuation was added for clarification.

The index will be available on line for use by USCR editors and researchers. It should be noted that Yale University houses a complete run of the USCR, and updated indices will be added to that collection annually. Beginning with the winter 2013 issue, USCR editors are responsible for updating to the index.

Several people contributed much needed assistance during the preparation of the index. Barbara Cobb, USCR Coordinator; Marci Duryea, USCR Production Coordinator; Richard Pendleton, USCPFA-New England; Douglas Reynolds, Co-president, USCPFA-Atlanta; Bart Trescott, USCPFA-Carbondale; and Kitty Trescott, USCPFA-Carbondale and Director of the Center for Teaching about China provided information and advice, and loaned back issues of the USCR. Any mistakes and/or erroneous judgment calls are the compiler's alone.

SECTION I

Section I of the index covers the years 1981 to 1989, Volumes V-XIV. Six issues were published each year until 1987. Between that year and 1989, changes were made in the production schedule. First, in 1987 the National Board reduced the number of issues to five; thus there is no Volume XI, #6. In 1988 and 1989 only two issues were published each year: #1 and #2 in Volume XII and #1 and #2 in Volume XIII.
